

Glenn Goes to the Movies

Join Glenn's Justice Team as we view and discuss movies related to Glenn's work for justice in our world.

ORIGIN

Inspired by the New York Times best-seller "Caste," ORIGIN weaves together the story of our history, the journey of the author of "Caste", and a fight for the future of us all.

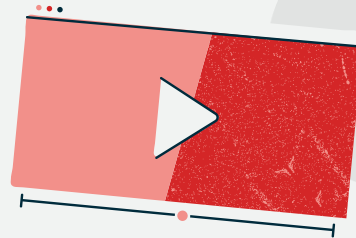

May 18, 9:30am, the YAAB.
Rated PG-13

SHADES OF STRUGGLE

Produced by Glenn choir member Emily Redden, this documentary offers an inside look at the protests of 2020 in Atlanta, featuring interviews, found footage, and news clips.

July 28, 6:00pm, Fellowship Hall
Not rated.

JUST MERCY

This powerful true story follows the work of Bryan Stevenson as he fights for justice for people wrongly accused or inadequately represented.

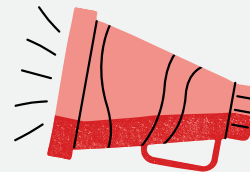

September 28, 9:30am, YAAB
Rated PG-13

SELMA

A chronicle of the march from Selma to Montgomery and MLK's work to secure equal voting rights.

November: date TBD
Rated PG-13

HIGH ON THE HOG

This documentary series looks at how African American cuisine transformed America. We will learn about the role of chefs and bakers who supported the Civil Rights Movement in Atlanta.

January 11, 9:30am, YAAB
Rated TV-14

STAMPED FROM THE BEGINNING

Based on the book by the same name, this documentary looks at the history of racist ideas in America. How did we get where we are?

February: date TBD
Rated R

For more information, visit glennumc.org/justice